

THEY'RE SO GOOD
I GOT ONE OF THEM TARTS
WITH OLYMPIC PANCAKE FLOUR
BUT TEACHER WENT AND BOOKED
AND LICKED ME FOR AN HOUR

Ask your dealer about the new
PRESENTS
for boys and girls that go with
"Olympic" Wheat Hearts and
"Olympic" Pancake Flour
Just the dandiest, catchiest, most interesting
"new" novelties imaginable, especially imported from Germany.
Portland Flouring
Mills Co.
Portland,
Oregon

DELICIOUS
NUTRITIOUS

FOREST FIRES DRIVE
FARMERS FROM HOMES

Santa Cruz, Cal., Oct. 20.—All ranchers living in the fertile Scott valley, east of here, deserted their ranches early today and were lined up along Bear creek on the ridges in an effort to check the forest fires threatening their homes. Fire Warden Welch was directing operations at this point. A call for help from the several fire zones near here was received early today and several hundred men responded. Hundreds of men worked in such intense heat yesterday and last night that new men were constantly in demand to replace those who fell out from sheer exhaustion.

Santa Monica, Cal., Oct. 20.—The brush fires which swept La Flores and Las Tunia canyons, 12 miles north of here, Sunday are reported under control. A change in the wind saved the Rindge ranch, which was threatened. No houses were in the track of the flames.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Oct. 20.—One hundred fire fighters working all night succeeded in saving several ranch houses, which were in the path of the flames which swept Los Palmas canyon yesterday.

Six fighters, cornered for a time between two walls of flame in a narrow pocket of the canyon, fought their way out. Reports from all directions indicated that the fire was out today.

WRECK ON M. & O. RY.
KILLS 25 PEOPLE

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 20.—Twenty-five men were known today to have been killed in the wreck of the Mobile & Ohio railroad train which crashed yesterday afternoon through a trestle near State Line, Miss.

Of the dead 23 were soldiers of the 39th and 170th U. S. Coast Artillery. Two were members of the train crew.

In addition to the killed, about 100 soldiers were injured, 20 of them seriously and four or five so badly that they probably will die.

The soldiers, 179 in number, were on their way from Fort Morgan and Fort Barrancas to Meridian, Miss., to participate in the Mississippi-Alabama fair.

Near State Line the locomotive tender jumped the track. The engine remained on the rails and safely crossed a 25-foot trestle the train was approaching, but the tender and three cars plunged to the ground.

SERBIA PROMISES TO EVACUATE ALBANIA

Vienna, Oct. 20.—Serbia promised, in a note received from Belgrade today, to comply immediately with Austria's demands to evacuate Albania.

PRESIDENT AND BRYAN
CONFER OVER MEXICO

Washington, Oct. 20.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan will make no reply to criticisms recently voiced in Spokane by former Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson of the administration's attitude toward Mexico. Secretary Bryan intimated that Wilson was discredited, and that no official notice would be taken of any of the former ambassador's "re-bukes."

The president and Bryan conferred briefly this afternoon over the Mexican situation.

HUERTA WILL DOUBTLESS BE CANDIDATE SUNDAY

Vera Cruz, Mex., Oct. 20.—Despite all his promises to the contrary, it was considered practically certain here today that Provisional President Huerta will be a candidate to succeed himself at the election next Sunday, October 26.

The constitution prohibits the same president from serving two terms in succession, but Huerta presumably will resign in a day or two, to make a break between his two periods of office holding.

That he will announce his candidacy immediately following Felix Diaz' arrival here was the general expectation. It was said General Blanquet will run with him for vice-president. Blanquet was born in Spain, and consequently is ineligible to the presidency, but it was doubted if a mere technicality like this would interfere with the program.

Ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs Gamboa, the Catholic party's candidate, was counted on to retire from the race with the announcement of Huerta's candidacy. He has been considered completely under the latter's control. Manuel Calero, the liberal candidate, has small support and is not a serious rival for the office. Felix Diaz, however, it was believed, may embarrass Huerta, if he desires to make the campaign, and it was for this reason that his friends expressed much anxiety concerning his safety. They announced that he would not run if Huerta aspires to the office, but this statement was deemed purely perfunctory.

Diaz was expected here late this afternoon on the Corcoravado, and neither his followers nor the Huertistas conceal their anxiety lest his arrival here cause new and serious complications.

LAUNCH REVENUE CUTTER
AT MARE ISLAND YARD

Vallejo, Cal., Oct. 20.—The revenue cutter Guard, the first vessel to be built for the treasury department at Mare Island, was successfully launched today. Miss Jeannette Crosse, daughter of Yard Captain Crosse, was sponsor for the vessel.

GUARDS SAY NOT GUILTY OF SMUGGLING

San Francisco, Oct. 20.—Pleas of not guilty were entered today before United States Judge Dooling by 13 former customs guards who are charged with conspiring to smuggle opium into this port. Their cases were continued for one week.

PORTOLA GIRLS GO HOME

Portland, Oct. 20.—The Portola Girls of San Francisco, after being lavishly entertained here for three days, will leave this evening for home on the Shasta Limited.

GUY ROSS DROWNS AT ROCKAWAY BEACH

Bay City, Ore., Oct. 20.—Search is being made today for the body of Guy Ross, age 23, of Portland, who was knocked by a wave from a small boat in which he and two others were riding and drowned in the ocean off Rockaway Beach.

Santa Rosa, Cal., Oct. 21.—"I'm going to start a brewery and buy a motorcycle," said Henry Meyer, a ranch hand, when notified he had inherited $100,000 from a German relative.

MRS. PANKHURST IS ALLOWED TO LAND

New York, Oct. 20.—Freely by Immigration General Caminetti's order, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, English militant suffragette leader, left Ellis Island today, crossed the bay to New York, was met by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's automobile and drove at once to Mrs. Belmont's home. She was to have addressed a meeting at Madison Square Garden tonight, but in consideration of the ordeal she has been through, the meeting was postponed until Wednesday.

Her release was not entirely unconditional. She was admitted on her own recognizance and without a bond, but it was under pledge to leave the country at the end of her lecture engagement. She understood also she was to respect American laws.

Mrs. Pankhurst received an enthusiastic reception from the throng of women who met her at the pier. She is a delicate looking elderly woman, almost super-refined in appearance, with a low, gentle voice and every mark of excellent birth and fine breeding.

She had little to say about her detention at Ellis Island, but her manner and a few casual remarks she dropped indicated that the promptness with which the New York authorities' decision was overruled from Washington had removed from her mind the unpleasant effect produced on her mind by the nature of her earlier reception.

Those who met her were profuse in their apologies for the treatment she had received, but Mrs. Pankhurst waived aside their protestations with the smiling intimation that, after the experiences she had gone through in English prisons, her stay on Ellis Island was rather to be regarded as a pleasure than as a hardship.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Following the issuance of his order for Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's release from Ellis Island on her own recognizance, Immigration Commissioner-General Caminetti formally filed an opinion in explanation of his decision overruling the New York authorities.

In the first place, he held, it was doubtful whether the offenses charged against Mrs. Pankhurst in England involved moral turpitude, and in the second, she can be prosecuted here if she violates American laws, or, if preferred, she can be deported.

Politics, he added, did not influence him in deciding to admit the visitor. He denied, too, that either he or Secretary of Labor Wilson were influenced by the avalanche of telegrams and letters they received protesting against the Englishwoman's detention.

Mrs. Pankhurst was ordered set free following a hearing granted by Commissioner Caminetti to her lawyers, and later, a conference between himself, President Wilson and Secretary of Labor Wilson.

President Wilson was said to have expressed much sympathy with the suffragette leader and to have said he was in favor of admitting her.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The New York immigration authorities' order excluding Mrs. Pankhurst from admission to the United States was overruled today. She will be given her freedom on her own recognizance, according to announcement at the white house this afternoon.

That the admission or exclusion of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was a question rather of policy than of law was the opinion expressed by President Wilson when questioned concerning his attitude toward the British suffragette leader. It was the general impression, however, that the executive sympathized with the visitor and would admit her.

Senators Chamberlain and Lane of Oregon notified the famous Englishwoman's attorneys that they were ready to assist in obtaining her admission and many prominent lawyers also have offered their aid. The immigration authorities who ruled against her admission came in, incidentally, for some very undattering criticism.

Before discussing the matter with President Wilson, Commissioner-General Caminetti had granted a preliminary hearing to Mrs. Pankhurst's lawyers. In order, he said, to have a complete record for submission to the president.

Attorney Reeves assured the commissioner, at the outset, that his client had never been guilty of any offense involving moral turpitude, and Caminetti seemed impressed at the news that she was never convicted of a felony. Reeves said that the last jury to find her guilty recommended her to mercy and denied that she advised direct violence. He was not permitted to introduce newspaper clippings showing what the acts were for which she has served prison sentences.

"Now, gentlemen," said Caminetti, "without any indication from me as to my decision, can you assure me that, if Mrs. Pankhurst is admitted, she will not advocate militancy in this country and will commit no untoward acts?"

New York, Oct. 18.—Immigration officials at Ellis Island were thrown into a panic this afternoon by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette leader, announcing her intention to go on a hunger strike after she had been ordered deported as an undesirable.

Then Mrs. Pankhurst changed her mind and the officials breathed easier.

Responding to a telephone message to Washington, immigration officials told Attorney Reeves, representing Mrs. Pankhurst, that the suffragette leader would be released tomorrow on bonds. Mrs. Pankhurst smiled when she received the news and said she would like something to eat.

Then she disposed of a chunk of roast beef and "trimmings."

After the inquiry board had finished interrogating Mrs. Pankhurst, she turned on its members.

"If what I have done in my fight for English women is called moral turpitude," she shouted, "then your revolutionary warriors and the men spilling the tea in Boston harbor were guilty of the same crime."

Then she launched into a denunciation of the methods employed by the board.

"All right," she said, "If you can stand it I can. But I warn you here and now that I shall not eat a morsel while I am detained here."

Ten minutes later Mrs. Pankhurst changed her mind, greatly to the relief of the board members.

The board of inquiry consisted of L. C. Steward, A. F. Shell and S. A. Eppler. The proceedings were secret. Mrs. Pankhurst was not represented by an attorney.

Mrs. Pankhurst added that she thought her case was prejudged.

"My examiners had a list of type-written questions ready to read to me," she explained in support of this opinion. "I protested that the United States did not exclude Parnell, O'Connell, Redmond and other Irishmen who came here to ask contributions in a cause which the present ruling class in England opposes, and that is all I am doing. But the board paid no attention."

New York, Oct. 18.—The immigration authorities today ordered Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette leader, excluded from the United States. She will be given a chance, however, to appeal.

It was as an "undesirable" that the inquiry board based its decision against Mrs. Pankhurst. The members questioned her for an hour, and then, after full consideration, decided that her offenses in England involved moral turpitude.

FRIENDS OF DEPENDENTS
MEET AT MOHONK LAKE

Mohonk Lake, Oct. 21.—Prominent statesmen, army and navy officials, and churchmen interested in Philippine problems and Indian affairs are here today to attend tomorrow's opening sessions of the thirty-first annual Lake Mohonk Conference of Friends of the Indian and Other Dependent Peoples. Two hundred and fifty are expected to attend the call sent out by Daniel Smiley, who is in charge of the conference. Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, chancellor of New York University, will preside at the meetings, which will continue through Friday.

PORTOLA FESTIVAL OPENS
AT FRISCO TOMORROW

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 21.—The spectacular Portola Festival, as famous as the Mardi Gras of New Orleans, opens tomorrow, and today thousands of visitors from all sections of California and a dozen other states are in San Francisco to attend the events which have been planned for the next four days. Many hundreds of visitors are here from Seattle, Portland and other Oregon cities.

Scratched
40 Years
Used D. D. D.,
All Itching Gone!

This is the actual experience of Anna Cronan, Santa Rosa, Cal., with the wonderful D. D. D. Prescription.
D. D. D. is the proven Eczema Cure the mild wash that gives instant relief in all forms of skin trouble.
Cleanses the skin of all impurities—washes away blotches and pimples, leaving the skin as smooth and healthy as that of a child.
Get a 50c bottle of this wonderful Eczema Cure today and keep it in the house.
We know that D. D. D. will do all that is claimed for it.
M. CLEMENS.

FOREIGN BISHOPS CHOSEN

New York, Oct. 21.—Though the names had not been definitely announced, it was understood today that the following foreign new bishops had been chosen at the Episcopal church convention here:

The Rev. Hugh Burleson, bishop of South Dakota; the Rev. Milo Gates, bishop of Cuba; the Rev. Fred Howden, bishop of New Mexico; the Rev. W. B. Capers, bishop of Spokane; the Rev. Charles Colmore, bishop of Porto Rico. The Rev. W. B. Capers was formerly in charge of the Columbia, Tenn., institute.

BOY TRAMP IS SHOT
DEAD NEAR TALENT

Medford, Ore., Oct. 20.—As a result of a quarrel between tramps near Talent Sunday morning, Jeff Collison, 19 years old, whose mother, Mrs. Luetta Carter, lives in Indianapolis, Ind., is dead today from bullet wounds and F. Burns, 32, claiming Chicago as his home, is held in jail charged with his death. Collison in his ante-mortem statement alleged Burns fired the fatal shot.

A Marvelous Escape

"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Sold by all dealers.

The
Weekly Oregonian
Including 4 Page Supplement
Until January 1, 1915
More Than an Entire Year
For 75c
During the Bargain Period
Ending Oct. 31, 1913
To New or Present Subscribers
Who Hand Us Their 75c Now
Mail or bring your subscription to the office of Rogue River Courier
Bargain Day Agents of The Weekly Oregonian
The Weekly Rogue River Courier and the Weekly Oregonian will be sent to any person in Josephine county one year for $1.50, payment of arrears to the Courier must be added